Welcome to Week 2 Term 4.

We have a few very busy weeks ahead as we “GO LIVE” with the new Department of Education HR Payroll system. Mrs Semmler and staff are undergoing training to prepare ourselves and our systems for the transition. I would like to acknowledge Mrs Semmler’s hard work in preparing our school for these changes. This afternoon she will present specific information to staff as part of our Term 4 Staff Development Day training. Tonight’s agenda also includes evaluating the school plan, looking at school NAPLAN data as well as reviewing the school discipline and anti-bullying policies.

We are in the midst of organising swimming lessons for the whole school and the Intensive Swimming Program. Keep your eye out for permission notes with information about these exciting upcoming events.

Thank you for completing the Tell Them From Me survey which will provide valuable feedback as part of our School Plan evaluation.

Kindergarten Orientation will commence in Week 7 this Term. Mrs Quade will contact all families to discuss the Kindergarten Information Session. Our new students are invited to join in the K-2 classroom over four weeks from 9am to 3pm. Information relating to this activity will be sent to those families involved.

Congratulations to all students for wearing their hats at school. As the weather warms it’s so important to be sun smart.

All children should have received a Book Club catalogue. If you are purchasing books please order by Friday November 9th.

K-2 Home Reading has been revamped with the purchase of some new texts. Thank you to Karen Protheroe and Karlynda Oxenbridge who donated their time to cover the books. It’s exciting to hear how well all Mrs Quade’s class are doing with their home reading. Good Job!

Our PBL journey is off to a flying start with children responding well to our explicit teaching of behaviours in school settings.

Congratulations to Breanna Oxenbridge who is this week’s citizen of the week. Breanna is very deserving of this award, as she is always a considerate, well-mannered and responsible peer, in both the classroom and on the playground.
